

Girl Scout Week Challenge! March 7-13, 2021

It's a great time to celebrate, have some fun, and share our Girl Scout spirit! Girl Scouts can choose activities from this page and track their points. When they achieve their point goal for their Girl Scout level during the month of March they will earn their Girl Scout Week patch (ordering info below).

2 Points Each:

- Show your Girl Scout Pride! Make a poster for a window or front door.
- Search the GSWNY Program Calendar to find events for your age group.
- Explore the WAGGS-World Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides-website.
- Create a piece of art (picture, poem, song, etc.) that is inspired by something you learned about WAGGS.

3 Points Each:

- Hold a Girl Scout birthday celebration with other Girl Scouts.
- Make a SWAP (or Special Whatchmacallits Affectionately Pinned somewhere or shared with a Pal).
- Share a photo or selfie of you in your Girl Scout uniform.
- Learn about one of the Girl Scout World Centers.

5 Points Each:

- Plan a service project on your own or with your troop.
- Create a short video to share with friends and family about why you love Girl Scouts.
- Do a good turn every day of Girl Scout Week.
- Learn about the YUNGA Challenge badges developed by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts and the United Nations, then try an activity from one of the badges.
- Use the Badge Explorer to search for and learn about badges you want to earn.

10 Points Each:

- Observe Girl Scout Sabbath or Girl Scout Sunday with your family or community.
- Earn the Girl Scout Way badge.
- Earn the My Promise My Faith pin.
- Plan a Scouts Own or other Girl Scout Ceremony.
- Learn about a successful woman in a career that interests you and create a way to share her story with your friends or family, such as a presentation or a video.
- Complete a service project in your community.
- Find an older Girl Scout alum in your community and interview her to learn about what Girl Scouting was like when she was a girl.
