Trust Me Walk

Trust Me Walk requires blindfolds and an indoor obstacle course or maze. A maze can easily be made with small traffic cones or other objects placed around the room.

Each girl chooses a partner. One partner is blindfolded while the other stands on the other side of the room. The girl who can see guides her partner through the maze using her words. This activity is great for building communication skills and teamwork.

The Nervy Song

(To the tune of Battle Hymn of the Republic)

I know a song that gets on everybody's nerves,
I know a song that gets on everybody's nerves,
I know a song that get's on everybody's nerves,
And this is how it goes.

Grilled Caramel Apple Crunch

1 cup chopped apple
sprinkle of cinnamon
2 Tbsp. caramel ice cream topping

1/4 cup granola

Tear off 2 pieces of aluminum foil, about 8 inches square each.

Put chopped apples in the center of one piece of foil. Sprinkle with cinnamon (if desired). Drizzle caramel over the apples. Sprinkle with granola.

Place the other foil square over the top, and roll the foil packets together. Start with the corners, and then roll up the edges, so it seals well.

Place on a grill, over coals, or in the oven for 10-15 minutes, until apples are soft.

Be careful when opening the foil packet, and be sure to open the side farthest away from you first, so the steam doesn't burn.

Serve with whipped cream or ice cream.

AMOEBATA TAG

Two people are it. They hold hands and chase people. Any person they catch joins the chain by linking hands. When another person is caught they can stay together or split 2 and 2, but they must split even numbers and can link together at will. This game is played until nobody is left.

Subway Art

Cut out favorite images, words, and phrases from magazines, cards, etc.

Paint a border around the edges of a piece of stiff cardboard or foam board.

Apply a layer of ModPodge to the blank center of the board and to the back of the words. Arrange the words on the board and then cover with a coating of ModPodge over the entire area and let dry.

DAISY

(to the tune of Dixie)

Away down south in old Savannah
First was raised the Girl Scout banner
Daisy Low, Daisy Low, Daisy Low
Founder dear!

Now scouting spreads to either ocean
Thousands bring you deep devotion
Daisy Low, Daisy Low, Daisy Low
Founder dear!

Away down south in Dixie
Daisy Low, Daisy Low,
The Girl Scout band on every hand
Are bringing praise together.
Daisy Low, Daisy Low,
Our love will leave you never!
Daisy Low, Daisy Low
Dwells in our hearts forever!
