Room Makeover Badge (Part 2)
Steps

3) Refurbish or Repurpose an item.

4) Give your room a makeover
Step 3: Repurpose one item in your room

• There are items in our homes that can be reused to serve a different purpose at home.

• Look around your room do you notice anything that need to be fixed? Maybe you have too many pencils. You can decorate a jar. Find an item at home to repurpose in your room.
Step 3: Choose an item to repurpose or refurbish.

- We have items in our homes that can be reused to serve a different purpose at home.
- Look around your home do you notice anything that you can make new and serve another purpose? *Find an item at home to repurpose for your room. Take a look at examples below to help you get started.

1. Maybe you have too many pencils on your desk. You can decorate a jar to place them.
2. Or you have a broken picture frame that you can use as an earring holder.
"The state of your room is the state of your mind"

Read this article below:
https://www.erinmackeyauthor.com/cleaning-health-and-wellness-5-benefits-of-a-clean-room-on-your-body-and-mind/ which explains the benefits that keeping our room organized and decorated attributes to your wellness.

Use this time to rearrange and organize your room. If you share a room with a family member invite them to join you in organizing your space.