Girl Scout Values:
Anti-Racism Patch

To earn this patch, complete at least one “Activities & Conversations” and “Stand Up, Speak Up” activity.

Activities & Conversations

- Grab your markers and crayons! Create art that celebrates diversity and inclusion. What do people have in common and what makes us different? Draw a picture showing what makes you unique!
- Research another culture’s holidays or traditions.
- Learn about Juneteenth and complete an activity celebrating African American culture or African culture.
- Learn about WNY’s local ties to Freedom Fighters like Frederick Douglass and Mary Talbert. Learn about the Underground Railroad.
- Design your own t-shirt that speaks out against injustice, etc.
- What are your interests? Sports? Fashion? Music? Pick an interest and explore how African Americans have influenced or contributed to your field of interest. Then make a poster of your findings!
- Explore Diversity in Your Community. What does it mean to have a diverse community? We can learn about diversity in our communities through the Census. The Census is a count of all the people living in the United States. It includes information about where we live and basic facts, such as age, race, and ethnicity.
  a. Use the Census Quick Facts Tool to learn about diversity in your community. You can explore your state, county, city, or neighborhood.
  b. What did you learn about your community? Do you think that your community is diverse? Learn more by asking other people in your community the same question.
- Play the Girl Scout law matching game (pages 3-4). Consider which parts of the Girl Scout Promise and Law support the fight for equality and inclusion.
- Let’s go on a Black History scavenger hunt. Pick a scavenger hunt to complete! Scavenger Hunt 1, Scavenger Hunt 2, or Scavenger Hunt 3.
- Choose a social justice movement to research such as Black Lives Matter, Pride, or Disability Rights. Share what you have learned with your family and friends.
- Take a virtual tour at the Jacob Lawrence The American Struggle, The Portraits of African Americans, and The Struggle For Justice Museum. Make a collage of African American figures that inspired you while you took the virtual tour.
- Pick a significant moment in Black history and make a graphic timeline displaying the events that took place.

Stand Up, Speak Up

- Write a letter to local government officials calling for social justice reforms.
- Create a sign, picture, video, or chalk a message calling for equity.
- Talk about empathy and sympathy. How does it feel to be excluded?
- If you see something, say something! Speak out against racism and injustice at home, in school, and in the community.
- Watch and read these videos/articles and gain knowledge of how Josephine Holloway, Dr. Gloria Scott, and Bazoline Usher stood up and used their voices in moments of injustice.

How did Josephine Holloway, Dr. Gloria Scott, and Bazoline Usher contribute to the legacy of encouraging diversity and inclusion in Girl Scouts?

Girl Scout Matching Game

Materials: Scissors and Girl Scout Law Matching Game Sheet (next page)

Consider which parts of the Girl Scout Promise and Law support the fight for equality and inclusion.

1. Learn about diversity, equity, and inclusion by using the included key terms and researching online.
2. Think about each line of the Girl Scout Law.
3. How does living the Girl Scout Law help to create a more diverse and inclusive world?
4. Cut out each square on the Girl Scout Law Matching Game Sheet. You can even color each piece!
5. Match the Girl Scout Law squares to the action squares. You may think of other actions or examples!
6. Discuss other things that you can do to celebrate diversity individually or as a troop.
7. Why is it important to celebrate diversity? What can happen when we do not celebrate people of diverse cultures, races and ethnicities?

Matching Game Key

Honest and fair - Ensuring that ALL girls have an opportunity to participate in troop activities.
Friendly and helpful - Introducing yourself to a new girl at school who is of a different background.
