MEET THE CAMP DIRECTOR

Me and My Favorite Gal/Guy/Family:

Camp Timbercrest – Under the Direction of Annette German (A.K.A Net)

My very first memories of camp are from when I was 4 years old camping with my family and since then my love of all things summer camp has grown! As a native of Western New York, I have had the pleasure of working at a variety of different camps for GSWNY and I am excited to return to Camp Timbercrest as the Camp Director.

I have over 20 years' experience working at camp and over 10 years' experience as a teacher. I am looking forward to hearing the girls sing their favorite songs, paddle Keyser Lake, and make more memories that will last a lifetime!

A FIRST-RATE STAFF

- The members of our camp staff are committed to working with every camper so each has a positive camp experience.
- Camp staff members provide encouragement to girls and mentor them as they develop positive moral values, a healthy self-image, a commitment to learning, social competencies, and empowerment as well as how to use their time constructively. Girls also learn about teamwork and a healthy respect for diversity.

- Waterfront staff is required to have American Red Cross Lifeguard & Water Safety Instructor Certifications.
- All staff members receive certification in First Aid and CPR before camp sessions begin.
- Specialty staff (e.g., for our horseback riding, waterfront, and the adventure challenge courses) possess required certification/training/experience prior to being hired.

- All of our Girl Scouts of Western New York camps meet national standards set forth by Girl Scouts of the USA.
- Records and inspection reports are on file at the Depew Girl Scout office.

RABIES INFORMATION

Bats, raccoons, skunks, and foxes have many things in common. They're all wild animals, and they help us by eating insects and other pests. Unfortunately, they also have one other thing in common — they all carry a disease called rabies. You can get rabies by being bitten or scratched by an animal that is infected with the disease. If this happens, you must go to the doctor so you won't get ill.

To ensure you don't get rabies, don't touch or play with any wild animals. Most wild animals are afraid of people and stay away. Many only come out at night. Sometimes animals with rabies will act sick or mean, fight with other animals, bite at trees, or even chase people. If you see wild animals that are friendly or are out during the day, stay away and tell the nearest counselor or adult.

Bats, raccoons, and foxes can also spread rabies to cows, horses, and other wild animals like skunks, woodchucks, or even deer. So remember, no matter how cute or tempting, don't touch or play with any wild animals.

LYME DISEASE: WHAT IS LYME DISEASE?

Lyme disease is the most common tick-borne disorder in the United States and can affect the skin, joints, nervous system, heart, and eyes. It is transmitted by a tiny tick the size of the period at the end of this sentence.

WHAT CAN YOU DO TO PROTECT YOURSELF?

- Walk in the middle of trails, away from tall grass and bushes.
- Wear a long-sleeved shirt.
- Wear white or light-colored clothing to make it easier to see ticks.
- Wear a hat.
- Spray tick repellent on clothes and shoes before entering the woods.
- Wear long pants tucked into high socks.
- Wear shoes or sneakers. Avoid going barefoot and don't wear sandals.

Here are a few things to remember about medications at camp:

- The NYSHD considers bug spray and sun screen FDA approved over the counter medications. Parents/guardians must sign the health form giving permission for their daughter to utilize.
- Remember to pick up any leftover medication from the health supervisor at the end of your stay.

PACKING FOR CAMP

PACKING TIPS FOR OVERNIGHT CAMP

The following are tips and suggestions to make packing easy. Do not go out and purchase brand new equipment. Many of the things you and your family will need are already around the house.

HOW SHOULD I PACK?

There is no room in the tents, cabins, lodges, or yurts for footlockers or trunks. Suitcases tend to be very bulky and often will not fit under a cot. We recommend backpacks or duffel bags with carrying straps.

ORGANIZATION TIPS

Camp can be messy. Lodges, tents, and cabins tend to become messy and campers often say "I can't find my sweatshirt!" For those less-than-organized campers, we suggest packing a day's worth of clothes in a zip-lock bag (the gallon size works great). Each morning your camper can reach into her duffel bag and pull out an entire outfit. Extra socks, shirts, etc., can be put in other zip-locks and labeled. This system works really well for younger campers too.

ME AND MY FAVORITE GAL/GUY/FAMILY

CAMP PROCEDURES REGARDING THE INTERNET AND TECHNOLOGY

Camp and Parent/Guardian Partnership: Our promise to you is to continue to build your trust in us. These procedures/guidelines will be enforced to ensure the continued safety and security of your daughter(s) while at camp. We can't do this alone. We need your help. Please share this very important information with your daughter(s). Together we can make a difference!

Your Daughter(s), Our Staff During Off-Peak Season: We recognize and understand that campers and counselors can develop close, trusting relationships with one another while at camp and that these relationships are healthy, wholesome, and beneficial to campers and staff alike. We also recognize and understand that it is natural for campers to want to keep in touch with their favorite counselors after camp. The Girl Scouts of Western New York, Inc. does not encourage or sanction the exchange of contact information between campers and the seasonal staff, nor do we take responsibility for what may occur as the result of such contact. Our procedure/guideline is to forbid the exchange of contact information of any kind between campers and the seasonal staff, whether paid or volunteer. While we cannot keep you from allowing your child to visit or communicate with one of our staff members, by doing so, you take full responsibility.

Cell Phones: Cell phones are not allowed at camp. There is one fundamental problem with campers having cell phones at camp, and that is trust. We understand that you are making a leap of faith by entrusting your daughter(s) over to the care of our counselors. As children learn to trust other caring adults, they grow and learn, little by little, to solve some of their own challenges. We believe this emerging independence is one of the greatest benefits of camp. It is one important way your child develops greater resilience. Contacting you by phone essentially means they have not made this transition. It prevents us from getting to problems that may arise and addressing them quickly. Please know that you may communicate with the camp staff at any time during your daughter(s) stay at camp. We also agree to tell you if your child is experiencing a challenge in her adjustment to camp. You can help by talking with your daughter before she leaves for camp and telling her that there is always someone she can reach out to, whether it is her counselor, the Unit/Village Director, the Director or camp nurse. Please review "preventing homesickness" in your parent guide. We all want the same thing for your daughter to have a successful camp experience.

Digital Cameras: To ensure the protection and privacy of campers, staff, etc., digital cameras are not permitted at camp. A camper taking inappropriate photos of campers and/or staff changing or showering and uploading these photos on the Internet is strictly prohibited. Disposable cameras are permitted and encouraged. Parents/guardians, please help us maintain a safe environment by explaining this to your child (please refer to the camper/parent agreement). Any camper that takes a compromising photograph of another camper or staff member and uploads it on the Internet or makes it public in anyway may be subject to dismissal from camp or may not be allowed to return. If the law is broken, the appropriate authorities will be notified.

Children's Camps in New York State

In New York State, summer camps must have a state, city or county health department permit to operate legally. These permits are issued only if the camp is in compliance with the state's health regulations. The permit to operate must be displayed in a conspicuous place on the premises.

The camp must be inspected twice yearly by a health department representative. At least one inspection must be made during the time the camp is in operation. Each camp is checked to make sure that the physical facilities are safe and that supervision is adequate.

When choosing a summer camp for your child, consider the following:

Staff Credentials/Supervision

What are the qualifications of the camp director?

The New York State Health Code requires that the director of an overnight camp be at least 25-years-old or hold a bachelor's degree; a day camp director must be at least 21-years-old.

All directors must have experience in camping administration or supervision. Camp directors' backgrounds are screened by the Office of Children and Family Services Central Register Database for reported incidents of child abuse and maltreatment. Their backgrounds are also screened by the Health Department for criminal convictions. Only individuals who are considered to pose no risk to campers are accepted by the Health Department as camp directors.

What are the qualifications of the camp counselors and how are campers supervised?

Counselors must have experience in camping and supervision of children or have completed an acceptable training course. Stringent counselor-to-camper ratios and staff qualifications are mandated for supervision of swimming, archery, riflery and camp trip activities.

At overnight camps, 80 percent of the camps' counselors must be at least 18-years-old; up to 20 percent may be 17-years-old. There must be at least one counselor for every 10 children aged eight years or older, and one counselor for every eight children younger than eight years old.

At day camps, counselors must be 16 years of age or older. There must be a minimum of one counselor for every 12 children.

Camps that must provide at least 10 counselors may choose to use counselors-in-training (CITs) to meet 10 percent of the required number of counselors. These CITs must be at least 16 years of age at an overnight camp and 15 years of age at a day camp. They must work with senior staff, have had previous experience as a camper and complete a training program. Ask the camp operator if any of their counselors are CITs and how they are used to supervise campers.

Ask about the camp's staff and supervision procedures, including discipline policies. Do they meet your expectations?

Health

Ask about medical coverage and when you will be notified if your child becomes ill or injured.

Is a doctor or nurse in residence or on call for campers at all times?

Physicians or nursing services must be available. All summer camps in New York State are required to have a health director and a written medical plan approved by the Health Department. The written plan must include, among other things, provisions for medical, nursing and first aid services. Injuries and illnesses must be reported to the Health Department and are thoroughly reviewed.

Does the camp require medical records for campers?

Camps must keep current medical history reports on file for all campers. Be sure to detail your child's history of immunization, illness, disability or allergy. Specify special diets and activity restrictions. Provide instruction for any medication your child must take.

Camp Safety

Are the camp facilities and activities safe?

The camp operator must develop a written plan to include maintenance of facilities, provisions for training staff members and orientation of campers, supervision of campers, campsite hazards, emergency procedures and drills, safety procedures and equipment for program activities.

Swimming

Are waterfront personnel qualified?

Are campers always supervised while in the water?

All waterfront activities at camps in New York State must be supervised by an experienced certified lifeguard or water safety instructor. On site, one qualified lifeguard is required for every 25 bathers. All aquatic staff are required to be trained in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

Camps that use off-site pools or beaches operated by others must make special arrangements to provide a safe activity. Even off site, the camp remains responsible for supervising campers.

Some children's camps use sites for swimming that are not inspected by local health departments. Parental permission is required in these instances, and the camp must follow established guidelines to protect campers.

While campers are involved in aquatic activities on site, there must be one counselor for every 10 campers eight years or older; there must be one counselor for every eight children aged six and seven; and one counselor for every six children younger than six years old. When swimming off-site, there must be one counselor for every eight campers six years or older and one counselor for every six campers younger than six years.

Are bathing areas marked off for various swimming skills? Are campers tested to determine their level of swimming ability before participating in aquatic activities? Are non-swimmers kept in water less than chest deep? Is the buddy system used?

Are campers required to wear life preservers when boating or canoeing? New York State regulation requires that the answers to all these questions must be "yes."

Camp Trips

Are camp trips supervised by counselors who have the maturity and experience to make decisions that could affect the safety of campers?

All trips must be supervised by a trip leader who is at least 18 years old and competent in the activity. Counselors must accompany trips and all staff must review the safety plan prior to the trip. Counselors should have the skills and expertise in the camp activity (canoeing, rock-climbing, etc.) to handle any emergency that might arise. Ask whether the camp has conducted similar trips in the past without incident. In New York State, the drivers of camp vehicles must be licensed and at least 18-years-old. Seat belts must be worn when provided and vehicle capacities not exceeded. When transporting children in a truck, only a truck cab can be used.

Sports and Activities

How are activities in craft shops supervised, especially when campers are using dangerous tools, such as power saws and lathes? Are archery and rifle ranges at a safe distance from activity centers? Are spectators protected at baseball fields and similar areas? Do players wear protective equipment?

State regulation requires that archery, riflery and horseback riding be supervised by counselors with special training in those activities.

Fire Safety

Are there periodic fire drills for both campers and staff? Does each floor of every building have fire exits in two different locations? Are flammable materials (gasoline, pool chemicals, etc.) stored away from activity centers and kept under lock and key? Are functioning smoke detectors located in every sleeping room?

All of the above are mandatory in New York State.

Location and Facilities

Are barriers erected against such natural hazards as cliffs and swamps? Are foot trails located away from such dangerous areas and from heavily traveled roads and highways? Do the camp facilities (bunks, bathrooms, mess hall, recreation facilities) meet your aesthetic tastes and those of your child? Is the camp located in an area that will not aggravate your child's allergies? Will your child be required to perform chores, such as cleaning or cooking?

For information on the camp's location and facilities, visit the camp or interview the camp operator by telephone, prior to making a decision to enroll your child at the camp.

Nutrition

Are good health practices observed in the camp kitchens, dining areas and food services? Does the camp serve food your child likes?

At camps in New York State, food must be prepared from inspected sources. Food preparation and handling activities are reviewed to assure safe and sanitary practices. Kitchen employees must be healthy and follow hygienic practices. Potentially hazardous food must be maintained below 45°F or above 140°F.
