

Girl Scout Cookie Lemonade Stands

A fun, flexible way to reach your cookie goals!

Cookie booths are a great way for Troops to build teamwork and work towards their goals together, but the fun doesn't have to stop there! A Girl Scout Cookie Lemonade Stand lets Girl Scouts set up shop to sell cookies on their own property (or a family member's), as long as local rules and property managers give the okay!

Make It Shine!

Don't forget to decorate your stand Girl Scout flair! Smile, wave, and share your cookie goals with customers who stop by.

Who Can Participate?

- Individual Girl Scouts in the same household
- Independently Registered Girl Scouts

A parent or caregiver must supervise at all times.

Before You Start

1. Have the Girl Scout's caregiver contact their Troop Cookie Manager to get cookies transferred to the Girl Scout.
2. Get location approval if you live in an apartment, gated community, or similar.
3. Always have an adult present- never leave cookies or money unattended.

Important Details

- All Lemonade Stand sales are considered girl transactions. Payments taken in Digital Cookie should be under the Girl Scout's account as "Cookies in Hand."
- Girl Scouts are financially responsible for any cookies transferred to them for a Lemonade Stand. The amount due will be reflected in the Girl Balance Summary.
- Lemonade Stands cannot be held near retail stores, sporting events, or troop/council booths.
- Keep cookies cool, shaded, and off the ground.
- Lemonade Stands may be held during GSWNY's Direct Sale dates.
- Lemonade Stands cannot be entered as a booth in Smart Cookies.
